

Mrs.Madhuri Sanjay Jadhav is a passionate and dedicated Social Science teacher with 15 years of experience, specializing in History, Geography, Civics, and Economics.

Educational Qualifications :

She holds a Bachelor of Arts in History and a Master's in M.A in English, B.Ed in English and Geography, along with certifications in Social Science teaching. She has also qualified in CTET paper 1 and 2 along with Computer knowledge (MS-CIT).

Work Experience :

- Her teaching experience includes roles at Holy Flower English school Nashik (Primary teacher for 1 year)
- K.K Wagh English School Nashik with 5 years of experience, as a (Primary teacher)
- G R Patil Vidyamandir at Badlapur (primary teacher) for 1 year
- Marthoma Vidyapeeth, Goveli Titwala from 2017 (as a TGT) till now where she has successfully integrated digital resources into her lesson to enhance student engagement.

Teaching Profile:

She has also performed as a board evaluator from 3 years.

Mrs. Madhuri Jadhav's teaching philosophy centers around fostering a deep understanding of the subject matter while promoting critical thinking. She uses a range of interactive teaching methods, such as debates, role-plays, and case studies, to engage students and help them connect past events with present-day issues.

She has led numerous school projects, including the:

- role plays on the occasions of national festivals,
- geographical activities,
- debate on political and social issues among the students.

Known for her skills in classroom management and differentiated instruction, Mrs.Madhuri Jadhav is also technologically adopted, using educational platforms to support her student's learning.

Outside of the classroom, she enjoys travelling, reading about history and politics, and volunteering in community programs.